

Secret to Spiritual Success

- ❑ Daniel 6:10-11; Acts 5:28-29; 4:12-13—Sometimes our commitment to remain loyal to God and His commandments requires us to go _____ the flow of man's requirements and expectations.

Both Daniel and the disciples of Jesus serve as examples of people who stood true to God's Word and God's commandments over the word and commandments of men. It is significant to note that in both stories, these men were distinguished by the _____ they spent in the presence of God.

- ❑ Mark 1:35-38—The time Jesus spent alone with His Father in prayer and heart communion empowered Him to live a life of faithfulness to God's will and Word even when it went against other people's expectations.

Necessity or Nicety?

- ❑ Luke 10:38-42—According to Jesus, the one thing we need is to spend intentionally invested time sitting at Jesus' _____, listening to Jesus' _____.
- ❑ Absolute necessity: Matthew 4:4; Job 23:12—God's Word is even more essential for life than our physical food. (cf. John 6:63)
- ❑ Daily necessity: Exodus 16:21 (cf. Matt. 6:11)—Just as God provides physical food for His people on a daily basis, He wants to give us the spiritual food of His Word every _____.

Secret to Spiritual Success

- ❑ Daniel 6:10-11; Acts 5:28-29; 4:12-13—Sometimes our commitment to remain loyal to God and His commandments requires us to go _____ the flow of man's requirements and expectations.

Both Daniel and the disciples of Jesus serve as examples of people who stood true to God's Word and God's commandments over the word and commandments of men. It is significant to note that in both stories, these men were distinguished by the _____ they spent in the presence of God.

- ❑ Mark 1:35-38—The time Jesus spent alone with His Father in prayer and heart communion empowered Him to live a life of faithfulness to God's will and Word even when it went against other people's expectations.

Necessity or Nicety?

- ❑ Luke 10:38-42—According to Jesus, the one thing we need is to spend intentionally invested time sitting at Jesus' _____, listening to Jesus' _____.
- ❑ Absolute necessity: Matthew 4:4; Job 23:12—God's Word is even more essential for life than our physical food. (cf. John 6:63)
- ❑ Daily necessity: Exodus 16:21 (cf. Matt. 6:11)—Just as God provides physical food for His people on a daily basis, He wants to give us the spiritual food of His Word every _____.

The Living Word

- ❑ Heb. 4:12—More than just ink on paper, the Word of God is living and powerful, impacting the very core of who we are.
- ❑ 1 Thes. 2:13; John 17:17—Unlike the word of men, the Bible does a sanctifying work within us, changing us from the inside out.
- ❑ 2 Corinthians 3:18 (Ex. 34:29)—The more we spend time fixing our eyes on the character of God in personal Bible study, the more we will be transformed into the same. By _____, we become changed.

Getting Practical

- ❑ Principle #1: _____ is everything. (Ezra 7:10)
  - preparation of the _____ to hold nothing back from God
  - openness to being _____, _____, and _____ by God through His Holy Spirit (cf. Isa. 50:4; John 16:12)
- ❑ Principle #2: God is more interested in _____ over quantity.
- ❑ Principle #3: Quality study comes from asking quality _____. Here are some categories of questions to ask:
  - “What?”—questions on the level of observation.
  - “So What?”—questions on the level of interpretation.
  - “Now What?”—questions on the level of application (Mt. 7:24-27).

My Commitment

- ❑ John 17:3; Revelation 3:20—The intimate experience of knowing Jesus personally is available to us when we take the time to hear His voice and open the heart’s door.
- ❑ Luke 10:42—While our time with Jesus is not something that can ever be taken away from us, it is something we can passively give away. We must actively and deliberately _____ to sit at the feet of Jesus.

Tonight’s Topic:
Taking a Stand at the End

The Living Word

- ❑ Heb. 4:12—More than just ink on paper, the Word of God is living and powerful, impacting the very core of who we are.
- ❑ 1 Thes. 2:13; John 17:17—Unlike the word of men, the Bible does a sanctifying work within us, changing us from the inside out.
- ❑ 2 Corinthians 3:18 (Ex. 34:29)—The more we spend time fixing our eyes on the character of God in personal Bible study, the more we will be transformed into the same. By _____, we become changed.

Getting Practical

- ❑ Principle #1: _____ is everything. (Ezra 7:10)
  - preparation of the _____ to hold nothing back from God
  - openness to being _____, _____, and _____ by God through His Holy Spirit (cf. Isa. 50:4; John 16:12)
- ❑ Principle #2: God is more interested in _____ over quantity.
- ❑ Principle #3: Quality study comes from asking quality _____. Here are some categories of questions to ask:
  - “What?”—questions on the level of observation.
  - “So What?”—questions on the level of interpretation.
  - “Now What?”—questions on the level of application (Mt. 7:24-27).

My Commitment

- ❑ John 17:3; Revelation 3:20—The intimate experience of knowing Jesus personally is available to us when we take the time to hear His voice and open the heart’s door.
- ❑ Luke 10:42—While our time with Jesus is not something that can ever be taken away from us, it is something we can passively give away. We must actively and deliberately _____ to sit at the feet of Jesus.

Tonight’s Topic:
Taking a Stand at the End